

Wildlife Leadership Academy

For youth ages 14-17

2011 Field Schools

Pennsylvania Drummers

focuses on Ruffed Grouse

June 21-25, 2011

at POWDERMILL NATURE RESERVE
in Westmoreland County

Pennsylvania Bucktails

focuses on white-tailed deer

July 5-9, 2011

at STONE VALLEY RECREATION AREA
in Huntingdon County

AN UNMATCHABLE EXPERIENCE

Learn about wildlife from leading biologists in the state including experts from Audubon PA, Kutztown University, PA Game Commission, Penn State University, Ruffed Grouse Society, Quality Deer Management Association and more!

Wildlife Leadership Academy gives you the tools to become a conservation leader in your home community.

EXPLORE

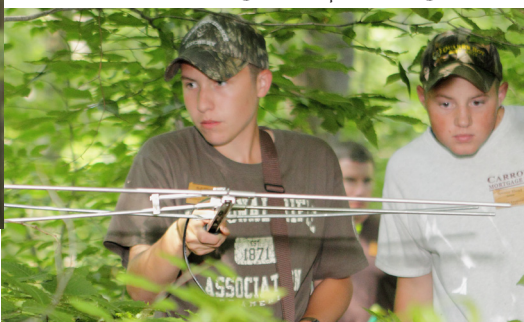

learn about wildlife biology, habitat, annual cycle and behavior

EXPERIENCE

learn about the role of hunting in wildlife management as well as gun firing and safety assess wildlife habitat, collect plants, learn about research & monitoring techniques biologist use develop your skills in nature photography and journaling through reflection

LEAD

build leadership and media skills to help you with community outreach and education after the field school

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Tuition for the five-day residential field school is $400.00.

Need help with tuition costs?

Apply for a scholarship!

For more information and application materials: www.PICEweb.org click the Youth Programs link, or contact the Program Coordinator, Michele Kittell, mkittell@piceweb.org, 570-245-8518. Application Deadline: APRIL 1, 2011.

The Wildlife Leadership Academy is a cooperative initiative of various state agencies and conservation organizations. It is coordinated and administered by the Pennsylvania Institute for Conservation Education (PICE).